

Youth Award

Have you helped make your school or community more inclusive?

A $1,000 award is available, apply by Saturday May 1st!

History of Award

The Port Nelson United Church Youth Award was established in September 2012 by the Church Council to recognize and celebrate the leadership of young people in the area of being inclusive, particularly pertaining to the needs and concerns of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgendered and Queer (LGBTQ+) people. The award offers a public and tangible way to celebrate Affirming – one of the church's emerging core values.

The Port Nelson United Church Youth Award is given annually in the amount of $1,000 to a student in their final year of studies at any secondary school in Halton Region, as selected by the Youth Award Committee.

Award Eligibility

To be eligible for this $1,000 award, you need to be:

- A student in the final year of studies at any secondary school in Halton Region
- A student who has demonstrated significant leadership in school or community in the area of being inclusive of others, with strong preference given to leadership in the area of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgendered and Queer (LGBTQ+) issues, concerns and needs

Examples of leadership experiences:

- Gay-Straight Alliance leader/member
- Leadership with persons with disabilities
- Intercultural events or initiatives
- Volunteer work with seniors
